Prayer

Lord,
when our steps are weary and the going is rough when our life is dreary and our journey tough Open the gate of glory

Lord,
when the dark clouds thicken and the storm rides high when the troubles quicken and danger is nigh
Open the gate of glory

Lord,
when our work is completed and the battle is done we are not defeated the victory you have won Open the gate of glory

Amen.

Collect

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth:
send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues,

without which whoever lives is counted dead before you.
Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

Post Communion Prayer:

Loving Father, we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son:
sustain us with your Spirit, that we may serve you here on earth until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Prayer and Praise today at 5:30pm

Today's Prayer and Praise will be a Celtic-style service using resources from the Iona Community and others. All are welcome and we look forward to meeting together for prayer and praise.

Sea Sunday—10th July

We look forward to welcoming Captain David Templeman RN (Ret.) as our speaker at our Parish Communion Service on Sea Sunday. David joined the Royal Navy in 1965 and served for 23 years before retiring to take up a career in telecommunications from which he retired in 2006.

Seafaring remains one of the most dangerous careers and the work of organisations such as The Mission to Seafarers, founded as The Mission to Seamen in 1856 is as vital today as it has ever been.

'The Mission', as it is known to seafarers around the world, traces its origins back to 1836 when the Rev'd John Ashley set up the Bristol Channel Mission after one of his children asked him how the seamen on the ships moored out in the channel got to church. Join us at 10:00am Parish Communion in St Mary's on 10th July to hear about the problems which face today's seafaring community.

PCC Members - Meeting next Sunday, 3rd July

At the last PCC meeting it was decided that the whole PCC should meet again for a 'Bring and Share' lunch from 1:00pm to 3:30pm in the Parish Centre on Sunday 3rd July, in order to plan a series of events designed to foster community and, hopefully, raise some funds to assist in reducing the financial deficit facing St Mary's. Please ensure that you are able to attend this meeting and come prepared both to contribute ideas and volunteer to help with planning and organising elements of the programme agreed.
