Theology Book Group

The Group enjoyed a lively and excellent discussion about Part 1 of 'The Bible Book' on 15th July. We are already looking forward to our next meeting which will be in St. David's Chapel, starting at 7:30pm on Monday, 2nd September. The book being discussed this time will be a novel, 'The Hidden Years' by Neil Boyd, an imagining of Jesus' life in Nazareth before he began his earthly ministry. Anyone interested in joining the Group contact Jean Hockett - (jlh11444@gmail.com).

Eco-church Bronze Award : St Mary's has achieved this. We hope to go on to Silver and Gold awards. With this in mind, a publication has been distributed by the Diocese. Here is a snippet. "Power of your pound: Are there changes you can make in your personal choices that will benefit the environment? For example, eating seasonal food produced locally and sustainably, more vegetables and less meat; buying second-hand clothes; using refillable containers; cycling or walking more; choosing ethical investments. "

Some dates for your diary.
